DESCENDENTS

OF

HERMAN ZWEIBOHMER SR.

AND

ANTOINETTE ZWEIBOHMER

1823-1969
Without the help of my mother, Mrs. Catherine Zweihomer my wife, Barbera, and many of the people in this list of descendents, this family tree would never have become a reality.

I would indeed be surprised if someone didn't find some errors of one kind or another in this list. I tried to give you the information as it was given to us. It is very easy to make an error when dealing with dates and names, so, please, make corrections as necessary. I would also appreciate a note giving me the correct information.

We hope you will use this information and continue to add to it. If this is done the future generations will at least be able to trace their family tree back to Germany.

Herman and Antoinette were married in Westphalen, Germany. When Antoinette was about six and one half months with child, they set sail for America. The voyage took longer than expected and she gave birth to a son, Herman, while at sea, on July 18, 1854.

They settled on a farm near Festina. Later moving to one near Calmar, Iowa. It is uncertain as to where the other children were born and raised.

Herman Zweibohmer Sr. married again some years after his first wife died. His second wife was Johanna Hageman, born Sept. 7, 1834 and died Dec. 4, 1912. They made their home in Ossian, Iowa until their death.
